The Superintendent of Police was directed to promulgate the following to the Department by General Order:-

Because of many rumors to the effect that serious trouble may take place in or about the first two weeks in July, it is deemed judicious by the Police Commissioner to suspend vacations for such period as may be necessary on and after the third of July next, so that every member of the Department will be on duty ready to cope with this situation should it arise.

During the period of suspension of vacations, Commanding Officers are instructed to carry out the following orders:

1. Day of Relief will not be suspended until it may be necessary, but as this is a time of emergency, men on Day of Relief will report at their respective stations at 8 o'clock, A. M. the day following their Day of Relief either by telephone or in person, as determined by their superior officers.

2. No officers will be excused from the 5.45 P. M. roll-call on their long day except by permission of their Superior Officers.

3. Permission to leave the city during this period of suspension will not be granted except in cases of real emergency and then only upon approval by the Superintendent. All Day men and Long Day men absent from their homes visiting theatre, relatives, etc., must leave word at their homes where they can be found, so that they may be ordered to report at their stations immediately in cases of emergency.

4. When the suspension period is over, a general revision of the vacation period will necessarily have to be made. Vacation numbers drawn and now held by men in the Department will proceed in the same order as if no suspension period had taken place.
